THOMAS MORE
UNIVERSITY

Dual Credit Program

Thomas More's Dual Credit Program offers high school students the opportunity to take college classes with Thomas More faculty or credentialed high school instructors at their high school, online, or at our Crestview Hills campus. Courses are offered at a discounted tuition rate until a student's graduation from high school.

Admission Requirements

Thomas More's Dual Credit Program is open to high school sophomores, juniors, and seniors who have an unweighted high school GPA of 3.0 or higher. Students must also meet any course prerequisites.

Note: Sophomores may only enroll in the courses offered at their high school (where applicable). Some exceptions may apply.

Application Process

Students who meet the above requirements will need to submit the following materials:

- Online application: thomasmore.edu/dualcredit
- High school transcript

Note: Submission of application does not guarantee admission. The Dual Credit office will work with qualifying students and/or their high school to register and complete next steps.

Cost and Fees

Dual credit is offered at a discounted tuition rate. Please email us at dualcredit@thomasmore.edu for the most current tuition rates. Students are responsible for paying their tuition and the cost of the course materials.

Note: Scholarships may be available through KHEEA. Please contact your high school counselor for more information.
